

Gidimt'en Yintah Access

Wet'suwet'en (Gidimt'en Clan)

Wet'suwet'en land defenders reoccupying territory and blocking Coastal GasLink pipeline construction on unceded yintah.

Why it matters

Coastal GasLink's 670 km route crosses roughly 190 km of Wet'suwet'en territory. Hereditary chiefs have not consented. The conflict has become a national test of Indigenous jurisdiction, climate policy, and police enforcement on land defence.
